Go & See – Film Visual Guide Resource

A visual guide to support pupils' understanding of going to see a film at Picturehouse Central.

You can access additional resources on A New Direction's website.

This visual guide could be particularly relevant to pupils who benefit from Social Stories. Teachers could read it with their classes before the trip and it could be shared as a handout for grownups to read at home too.

To find out more about Social Stories, please visit this website.

We’re going to the cinema!

I will travel to BFI Southbank.

I might be travelling by bus,

or by train,

or on foot.

My class will be going there too.

My teachers will going be there too.

The Location

This is the entrance we will use outside Picturehouse Central

This is where I will watch the show.

The screen is called Screen 1.

The Location

There will be a Q&A on stage. This is where someone answers some questions about the film.

The person answering questions will be someone who works for Aardman. They will be an animator who knows about the film.

The Screening

After the Q&A the lights in the room will go down and the film will start on the screen.

I will see The Wrong Trousers and A Close Shave.

Altogether the screening will be 1 hour and 30 minutes long.

Here is some more information about the films:

In The Wrong Trousers, Wallace's inventions attract the attention of the dastardly Feathers McGraw and it's up to Wallace and Gromit to save the day in an iconic chase sequence that would put James Bond to shame!

And in A Close Shave, the dynamic duo are drawn into a sheep rustling plot and cross paths with the cheeky and uncontrollably force known as Shaun the Sheep.

The Show

The film will have sounds and music.

If it is too loud, I can cover my ears or use ear defenders.

My class will be there.

Other schools might be there too.

The End of the Show

When the show ends, the lights will come back on.

The audience might clap.

I will walk back to the main entrance.

I will say goodbye to the staff when I leave.

I will travel back to school with my teachers and class.

About New Direction

A New Direction is an award-winning charity (1126216) working to enhance the capacity and agency of children and young people in London to own their creativity, shape culture, and achieve their creative potential.
