FREE training for Teachers interested in exploring the role of the Intelligent Physical Arts within the Key Stage 1, 2 & 3 PE Curriculum

The CirSchool project is a European Comenius initiative focused on developing innovative and dynamic teaching and learning approaches within key areas of the Physical Arts and PE curriculum. In particular, the practice of circus skills, which is carried out using the body and which implies and promotes in the individual a series of competences, connected to the notion of learning to learn through play, developing physical literacy, body awareness and the mind body connection
