

PARLIAMENT
WEEK

IN THE HOUSE

As a finale to Parliament Week, the House of Commons is throwing open its doors to young people from across London for the day. Come along and find out how to get more engaged with the issues that matter to you!

Saturday 23rd November 10.30am – 3.30pm
Portcullis House, House of Commons, Bridge Street SW1A 2LW

BROUGHT TO YOU ALONG WITH THE
MAYOR'S PEER OUTREACH TEAM

rocksolid
media group

A.N.D

PARLIAMENT WEEK

performances, debates and discussions about the issues that matter to you and how you can make your voice heard. This event is being run by the Greater London Authority, Parliament Week, Rock Solid Media and A New Direction.

There will be performances from young people from across London, guest appearances from well-known artists and inspiring speakers throughout the day. There will also be a market place where you can explore opportunities to get involved, get your voice heard and make a difference.

Parliament Week, 15-21 November, is a programme of events and activities that inspire engage and connect people with parliamentary democracy.

(This year Parliament Week is focusing on Women in Democracy – celebrating the achievements of women in democracy, but also looking at how more women can get involved.)

If you would like to attend, bring your friends, members of your group, family or organisation please register by emailing rebecca.palmer@london.gov.uk

If you would like more information call Rebecca on 020 7983 4769.

Capacity is limited; therefore entrance to the event is by booking only.

 @parliament\_week
parliamentweek.org

BROUGHT TO YOU ALONG WITH THE MAYOR'S PEER OUTREACH TEAM

 rocksolid
media group

A.N.D