

Go & See – Theatre Visual Guide Resource

A visual guide to support pupils' understanding of going to see a theatre show at Little Angel Theatre in Islington.

You can access additional resources on A New Direction's website.

This visual guide could be particularly relevant to pupils who benefit from Social Stories. Teachers could read it with their classes before the trip and it could be shared as a handout for grownups to read at home too.

To find out more about Social Stories, please visit this website.

We're going to the theatre!

I will travel to Little Angel Theatre.

I might be travelling by bus,

or by train,

or on foot.

My class will be going there too.

My teachers will going be there too.

The Location

This is the outside of Little Angel Theatre.

This is the inside of the building.

This is where I will watch the show.

The Theatre

The venue staff will show me where to go and how to get to my seat.

The lights will be on to help me find my seat.

Once the show starts, it will go dark.

I will see the show
The Singing Mermaid.

It is 55 minutes long.

Here is some more information about the show:

One day, the singing mermaid is tempted away from all of her sea creature friends and her peaceful home at Silversands to join a travelling circus. The audiences love to hear her sing, but the poor mermaid was tricked! Instead of the swimming pool she was promised, she is kept in a small tank by the wicked circus master Sam Sly, and she soon longs to return to the freedom of the sea. Will she ever escape? And who will help her along the way?

The Show

The show will have sounds and music.

If it is too loud, I can cover my ears or use ear defenders.

My class will be there.

Other schools might be there too.

The End of the Show

When the show ends, the lights will come back on.

The audience might clap.

I will walk back to the main entrance.

I will say goodbye to the staff when I leave.

I will travel back to school with my teachers and class.
