

Planning for Innovation in Cultural Education: Connected London Strategy Workshop

Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, 50; Hoxton Square, N1 6PB; Tuesday 16 July 2013 9.30-4.00

| | |
|---------------|--|
| 09:00 – 09:30 | Coffee and registration |
| 09:30 – 9:40 | Welcome and Introductions (new participants) Outline and objectives for the morning |
| 09:40 – 10:20 | On Being Radical Introducing a framework for radical innovation Activity, presentation and discussion |
| 10:20 – 10:30 | Radical Innovation in Connected London Recommendations from the first workshop |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Welcome and Introductions (extended group) Outline and objectives for the day Introducing the updated programme outline and the narrative for the day |
| 11:00 – 11:10 | Where we are now Sharing two projects in the programme (Ealing, Haringey) AND update on the current context and implications for cultural education in London |
| 11:10 – 13:00 | The big picture Transforming cultural education in London Activity, presentation and discussion Includes coffee |
| 13:00 – 13:45 | Lunch |
| 13:45 – 14:00 | Practical workshops Facilitators explain objectives of the workshops |
| 14:00 – 14:45 | Listening to others Planning meaningful user engagement |
| 14:45 – 15:30 | Then choose from: Envisioning success : developing a powerful and engaging vision Exploring strategic relationships : Stakeholder mapping Asset mapping : matching resources to goals |
| 15:30 | Thanks and conclusion of formal programme Tea and follow up conversations with individuals & teams |
| 16:00 | Close |